

Wade Weissmann

As the founder and principal of Wade Weissmann Architecture, Wade has spent the last twenty years designing classically inspired estates of many genres around the world. His firm's work has been highly praised for its fine attention to craftsmanship and design detail, and for lending homeowners a feeling of resort living, right at home. Wade Weissmann

Architecture has offices in Milwaukee, Nashville, Chicago, Pittsburgh and Santa Barbara, and is rapidly expanding its staff and offices around the country. Wade is an active member of the ICAA, a passionate supporter of the arts and the Human Rights Campaign, and a recipient of the prestigious Shutze Award. Wade believes wholeheartedly that a collaborative approach to design always yields the greatest results. ■

wadeweissmannarchitecture.com

